

Department of Public Safety

Code of Conduct for Officers

The Code of Conduct of Southwestern Christian College's Department of Public Safety is promulgated by the chief of Security and by the authority of the president of the college.

This directive is for departmental use only and does not apply to the students of the college.

The Code of Conduct of Southwestern Christian College's Department of Public Safety is designed to promote efficiency, discipline, and good public relations by setting forth policies governing the conduct of every member of Code of Conduct of Southwestern Christian College's Department of Public Safety.

As you perform your duties, it is my hope that you, as a campus enforcement officer, will abide by these codes to ensure high professional standards.

Johnathan McClinton
Chief Commanding Officer of Security
